

Pipeline Emergency Response Training

Objective: Develop a mutual understanding between response agencies and pipeline operators regarding coordination of response efforts

Agenda:

1. Introductions
2. Review Agenda and Objectives
3. Pipeline Locations and Products Transported
4. Leak and Hazard Information
5. Communications and Coordination of Response Efforts
6. Community impact and the potential protective actions that may be needed
7. Capabilities Review
8. Questions and General Discussion

Pipeline Emergency Response Training

Objective: Develop a mutual understanding between response agencies and pipeline operators regarding coordination of response efforts

Agenda:

1. Introductions

- Name, Organization, Office Location, Title, or Responsibilities

2. Review Agenda and Meeting Objectives

- Mutual Understanding
- Information Exchange (Q&A at the end)

3. Pipeline Locations and Products Transported

- Transmission Pipelines – see PDF file from National Pipeline Mapping System (NPMS)
- Gathering and Distribution pipelines – see PipeVision mapping application

4. Leak and Hazard Information

- Appendix A in Pipeline Emergency Response Guidelines \(PERG\)
- Incident Response Steps handout

5. Communications and Coordination of Response Efforts

- Incident Response Steps - see pages 19-27 in the PERG booklet
- Coordination – see pages 28-29 in the PERG booklet

6. Community impact and the potential protective actions that may be needed

- Operator Information forms

7. Response Capabilities

- Capabilities report for the County
- Action: Update Capabilities Online

8. Questions and General Discussion

Additional Resources: Single page Capabilities Form

Two page Capabilities Form

